

Since the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law was established, our home has been very peaceful. We get an occasional call for survey's and the rest are from family and friends. Please don't pass the petition that the Consumer Bankers Association has presented, "established business relationship exemption." We already have the nuisance of junk mail from those establishments. There are more than enough opportunities for those businesses to present/advertise their products to us without calling our home. Please protect our privacy.